IS THE TRUST PRESS IN THE DENEEN GAME?

Now Trying to Make It Appear That Teachers' Federation Defies Mayor Thompson—Has Thompson Got the Two Teachers' Organizations Mixed?

During her talk on the fight against the Teachers' Federation Sunday Margaret Haley, in a purely incidental way, dared Mayor Thompson to appoint Rothman to the school board after reading his record.

What she meant, undoubtedly, was that when Thompson knew all she had to charge against Rothmann he wouldn't reappoint him.

But the loop press quickly jumped on this one little remark, which really had no connection with her argument and tried to make it appear Miss Haley was defying the mayor, and the purpose was, of course, to stir up Big Bill's fighting blood and get him to put Rothman back on the school board.

Some of the loop papers have already quoted Mayor Thompson as saying that the Teachers' Federation had tried to influence him in making the appointments to the school board. The truth is that the federation has made no recommendation at all, and hasn't tried to dictate to the mayor, or to influence him. No member of the federation has made any recommendation.

But members of the federation say that the Teachers' League, of which
